Many Views

I saw a robin flying to and fro;
I saw bird droppings on the ground below.

I saw a rainbow of color hard to believe;
I saw a newspaper clipping that made me grieve.

I saw cool rain falling upon the land;
I saw a robber hurting an innocent man.

I saw a little old lady who wasn't alone;
I saw homeless children who constantly roam.

I saw a classroom of students being educated;
I saw a litter of puppies that somebody hated.

I saw the woods so dark and green;
I saw the world so cruel and mean.

We divide ourselves by stature and skin;
Not willing to see the person within.

We know our worlds are only miles apart;
So do we use this excuse for not opening our hearts?

The world itself has so many views;
But knowledge and understanding are seldom used.

When Will I Become A MAN?

One day my son asked me, "When will I become a man?"
And I looked him in the eyes as I gently took his hand.

I said, "There are many things that you must come to know;
so listen very closely to the list I have below.

When you learn to respect others.

When you put your family first.

When you drop what you are doing to see your children's birth.

When you remember your wife's birthday and your anniversary too.

When you spend time with your children no matter what they do.

When you realize you're not perfect.

When you're not afraid to try.

When you remember who created you in the blink of an eye.

When you recognize throughout your life you must continue to learn.

When you figure out that love and friendship are some things you must earn.

When you understand life's treasure is making people's dreams come true.

Then, my son, you have become a man, and I tip my hat to you!"

EDUCATION CONVERSATION & OBSERVATION

I believe EDUCATION CONVERSATION AND OBSERVATION are three major components that can promote positive change.

PROGRAM PURPOSE

This program is designed to teach and equip each individual with innovative ways to become a lifetime learner and leaders who is not only a effective communicator but also outstanding at connecting with others. A person who takes time to use personal observations as a tool to extinguish assumptions and misinformation about individuals and organizations. I want to raise young men's awareness, help them gain knowledge and develop skills to become productive leaders.

FOCUS POINTS

Education

- Educating yourself on becoming the architect of your environment, and not the victim.
- Learning how to expand your formal education in ways that benefit you in real life situations.
- Working on creating habits that can help you become a lifetime learner.

Conversation

- The ability to create and manage meaningful conversations and difficult topics in a respectful manner.
- The capability to listen to people when they are speaking to you.
- Identifying the difference between Change Talk vs. Sustain Talk.

Observation

- Taking time to observe for yourself ways to solve obstacles and difficult situations.
- Allowing you to come to a conclusion based on what you have seen personally.
(Facts, not opinions)
- Giving you an understanding of how others may view the world differently.

ECO is a program that was created because of my many difficult encounters, unexpected conversations and amazing connections that I have experienced and built with so many young men, that I have had the privilege to coach and teach over the past 39 years. Helping young men evolve into creative and productive leaders is the responsibility of us all parents, educators, administrators and coaches working together is essential. WE KNOW IT TAKES A VILLAGE!

GENTLEMEN

For Life

Gentlemen for Life

A six week program designed to help young men explore, observe, and recognize the value of being gentlemen, through meaningful conversations, mentor-ship, community service, and personal growth.

The goal is to have young men embrace the mentality it takes to be a gentleman on a consistent basis and to understand the influence they can have; to develop and refine their leadership skills while teaching them soft skill principles (interpersonal skills, communicating effectively, critical thinking, flexibility and adaptability, self-motivation, responsibility, and so on).

The purpose of this learning experience is to raise awareness, gain knowledge, and develop skills to become a Gentlemen for Life.

As iron sharpens iron, one man sharpens another.

GENTLEMEN

For Life

Gentleman- A chivalrous, courteous, or honorable man. A polite or formal way of referring to a man.

The Character of a Gentleman

The character of a gentleman is sensitive, yet strong. It is a voice of reason for those who are unsure. A gentleman is generous with his time, talents and treasures. He is respectful, patient, and inspires others to become the best version of themselves while he personally continues to challenge himself to grow as well.

Purpose of Program

The sole purpose of this learning experience is to raise awareness, gain knowledge, and develop skills to become a gentleman for life.

We urge every participant to keep a journal to document the information learned from each session or assignment. All handouts should be placed in a binder for future references. There will be a required reading assignments to help aid the development of personal growth. Individual activities and assignments will be given to students to work on with staff, other students, and community members.

“Men are anxious to improve their circumstances, but are unwilling to improve themselves they therefore remain bound”.

James Allen

DESTINY

By TD Jakes

Life occurs more when destiny is our focus! Our divine purpose maneuvers us past the roadblocks we may face in life.

When we take time to look deeper into our lives we begin to understand obstacles as catalysts that shift us toward authentic self-identity, greater exposure, and a better and bolder life.

When someone is stepping into their destiny that means fulfilling the role you were created to play in life.

Every person is unique; therefore every destiny may be different for every individual who lives. Other people may not agree or understand what you believe, or even what you're destined to be or achieve. Do not let the beliefs and opinions of others block you from achieving what you were born to accomplish.

KINDNESS MATTERS PROGRAM

Unless you try to do something above what you have already mastered, you will never grow.

OUR MISSION

To inspire, educate, and motivate individuals to understand that kindness matters. We want to empower individuals with the tools and support to boost each person's confidence, while being prescribed new ways of embracing others differences and administering kindness.

WHAT WE DO

We travel to schools, events, and organizations with a team of dynamic and inspirational leaders to deliver Wobbly Willie's message about kindness. We create personalized programs for schools and organizations that wish to make Kindness an important part of their everyday culture.

WHAT WE OFFER

Excitement and Fun: When it comes to starting things off right, the Wobbly Willie Kindness Matters Program just might be what your school needs to help brighten the minds of our future generation. We provide small group assemblies on the importance of anti-bullying and kindness. We want every person to understand the value of being kind and embracing people's differences.

Speaking Engagements: Richard Quisenberry, creator of Wobbly Willie and the Kindness Matters Program, will lead meaningful discussions about challenges and opportunities we encounter everyday as we strive to create a kinder community. During these presentations, Richard will reflect on his own personal experiences dealing with unkind people (bullying), while sharing his reasons for creating the Wobbly Willie Kindness Program. He clarifies how the power of kindness can transform people and communities.

Meet Wobbly Willie Cranford: Invite Wobbly Willie to come out and meet students and staff as we explore all the ways we can implement random acts of kindness in the school setting as well as the community. During the visit, Wobbly Willie and crew will lead team building activities with students and staff. You will also discover that practicing kindness as a skill empowers us to respond rather than react. This informative and inspiring visit will leave you ready to spread kindness with everyone!

GAME TIME

Self-Leadership

Self-Leadership focuses on a concept known as upside down leadership. Understanding it starts with you, the role you play as an individual, and what is required of you to help the team succeed.

Value Added

To add value you have to first acknowledge the relative worth you hold in regards to the good of the team. You have been chosen to contribute in some capacity and that should be affirmed daily.

Ready for Battle

The necessary steps have been taken to understand the preparation needed for battle and that it starts long before the first jump ball. All things have lead to this moment and your preparation should reflect the upmost confidence.

Goals & Systems

Goals & Systems distinguishes the difference between ordinary and extraordinary. The line between win and losses lies in understanding the system you are operating in and how to guy into the game plan.

Purpose & Agreement

Everyone's purpose is different, but knowing your purpose allows each player to make an agreement to show up everyday for their teammates. The system does not succeed without the agreement of the end goal.

End Game

When the battle is over, how will you continue to display self-leadership, efficient systems, and the value you bring to the world out side of your sport?

QUISENBERY ENTERPRISE

would like to remind you:

You're Enough

People search for riches or a hero to bail them out. Because the world tells you you're not enough, so you begin to doubt.

You have everything within yourself, to achieve true success. Trust me when I say, it's been waiting on your request.

You were created for a purpose only meant for you. How hard you're willing to work determines what comes true.

So stop stalling and debating. Start grinding and creating. You're enough to accomplish your dreams, no matter how difficult it seems.

Do yourself a favor, despite what others may say, and follow these simple directions. I am asking you to obey.

Turn on the light. Open your eyes. Look in the mirror. Can you see your hero now? The image should be clearer.
